Press Release

J2 Winery awarded Silver Medal at San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition

Sonoma, CA, Jan 6, 2012 – J2 Winery (J2W) is pleased to announce it was awarded a SILVER MEDAL for its 2009 Private Reserve, Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley in the 2012 San Francisco Wine Competition.

The 2012 San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition (SFCWC), the Largest Competition of American Wines in the World, set a new American wine competition record with an astounding 5,500 entries in which J2W entered its inaugural vintage of its Private Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon. J2W's Private Reserve was entered into the 458: Cabernet Sauvignon - $60.00 & Over category and it was in good company with many other top wineries in the business. Results were announced online at www.sfgate.com and www.winejudging.com on Friday afternoon, January 6, 2012. See <http://www.winejudging.com> for all the details.

“The team is very proud that our first vintage of the Private Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon received a Silver Medal from such a prestigious competition. We are pleased the judges recognized the quality of our wine and we look forward to raising the bar for next year's competition,” said Brad Jacobs, J2W's CEO and Winemaker.

About J2 Winery. Founded in 2009, J2 Winery LLC produces handcrafted, limited production wines from vineyards in California. These handcrafted-limited production wines are created so that the selection of grapes, fermentation, aging vessel, barrel room care, and packaging come together to form ultra-premium wines.
